

Michigan Wildlife

CLUES

DOWN

1. These animals have poor eyesight, good hearing, and an excellent sense of smell. They hibernate in the winter.
5. The museum has two of these on display, one is even albino which is very rare.
6. This is the state animal of Michigan.

ACROSS

2. This large white bird has been known to be aggressive.
3. These animals eat crayfish, small mammals, frogs, fish and birds.
4. This endangered carnivore only lives in the Upper Peninsula and on Isle Royale in Michigan.
7. This huge mammal is a great swimmer, has large antlers used for fighting, and they live in Alaska, Canada, and the northern United States including Michigan!
8. This omnivore lives in every county in Michigan! Their red fur sets them apart from their gray cousin.
9. This large cat is endangered in Michigan. It eats elk and deer.
10. The museum has two pups on display and they are only 4 months old. Can you find them?

Michigan has a large diversity of animals. If you want to see many of these animals yourself, visit the wildlife exhibit. The answers for the crossword puzzle can also be found there! Good Luck!

